Stories of Success

JOHN W. ALEXANDER

Keeping everlastingly at it brings success.
With ordinary talent, and extraordinary perseverance, most things come through. Persistent people begin their success where others end in failure. There was no opening in the art room of a New York publishing house when John W. Alexander came from Allegheny, Pennsylvania for a job.

But the future president of the National Academy of Design, the most important art society in America, would not take "no" for an answer.

The next few years he worked hard, and from wages of three to eight dollars a week saved enough to attend the Royal Academy at Munich.

Without the money-saving habit, without perseverance and frugality, when golden opportunity knocks at your door you will not be ready.
See us today about this important matter.

started to drive to Delta and other towns in that locality where they once resided.

—The Misses Tracy entertained at a House Party last week the Misses Jeannette Chesbrough, Dorothy Mayes, Helen Teal, Isabel Graves and Mildred Hill, of Indianapolis. Miss Isabel Graves entertained the same guests at a novel Canoe Tea.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fuller and daughter, Majorie, Mr. and Mrs. F. Fuller and son Allen, Mr. and Mrs. P. Finch and Mr. and Mrs. Harry LaFarree formed a picnic party at Valmers' Park,
